International Journal of Therapeutic Massage and Bodywork

How can massage therapy help doctors prepare patients for the stress of a surgical procedure? Check out Evaluating the Effect of Slow-Stroke Back Massage on the Anxiety of Candidates for Cataract Surgery and other articles in our most recent issue of IJTMB.

Read the latest issue, Vol. 12 No. 2 \(2019\)

IJTMB is open-access, peer-reviewed, and indexed in PubMed. It is the official journal of the Massage Therapy Foundation and our journal partner, the Registered Massage Therapists' Association of British Columbia.

Show Clients That You Care About Research

Your clients invest in you for their wellness, and want a therapist they can trust to provide the best health benefits that massage can offer.

Show your clients that research is important to your practice by becoming a part of our Doing Well by Doing Good campaign. Make a monthly donation of $50 or more to receive a table tent and decal to display in your practice.

Show off your support for massage therapy research!

Your Support Makes a Difference

MTF is dedicated to making the world a better place. We elevate the profession by funding research grants, scientific conferences, and educational initiatives for massage therapists and by providing direct community service to those in need. Please consider helping the Foundation continue to fund research and deliver knowledge to therapists' fingertips.

Now is the time to make research count!
