

International Journal of Therapeutic Massage & Bodywork

Official Journal of

RESEARCH EDUCATION PRACTICE

About the International Journal of Therapeutic Massage & Bodywork (IJTMB)

IJTMB is a quarterly, peer-reviewed scientific journal for the therapeutic massage and bodywork profession, and is available free of subscription fees and contributing author charges. It is an indispensable resource for members of the massage and bodywork profession as well as for related health care professionals.

IJTMB has three principal functions:

- Research – An opportunity for the dissemination of original quantitative, qualitative, and integrative research papers.
- Education – A forum for massage and bodywork educators on topics such as curriculum development, instructional design/delivery, instructional technology, distance learning, and testing/evaluative procedures.
- Practice – A venue for practitioners to stay up-to-date on issues such as planning, marketing, managing and evaluating a successful practice; incorporation of new scientific findings and methods into clinical practice; new clinical approaches to prevention and treatment of specific health conditions; and ethical issues.

IJTMB is indexed in: CrossRef; The Directory of Open Access Journals; Google Scholar; HealthIndex; Hinari; IndexCopernicus; PubMed Central; and Quertle.

Call for Manuscripts

Prospective authors are invited to submit manuscripts for publication consideration to the International Journal of Therapeutic Massage & Bodywork. Specific details regarding the journal's nature, scope of content coverage, author guidelines, submission procedures, and contact sources are available on the journal's website: www.ijtmb.org.

IJTMB is the official journal of the Massage Therapy Foundation and the Registered Massage Therapists Association of British Columbia